

Put your investment strategy into action

The one option with many choices

The TD Ameritrade self-directed investment account offers a range of services: for many companies and their employees.

- Stocks, bonds, ETFs, and thousands of mutual funds (trading fees apply).
- A minimum HSA Bank Health Savings Account balance of $1,000 is required to participate.
- Online access to real-time data, customizable charts, and one-click integrated trading.
- Integrated, online access to trading, balance information, and much more through the Member Website.
- The ability to place trades by website, telephone, mobile device, and broker.
- Access to independent research tools, such as S&P and Morningstar®, to help you make informed trades.

HSA Bank does not provide brokerage services; brokerage services are provided by TD Ameritrade. HSA Bank and TD Ameritrade are separate and unaffiliated firms, and are not responsible for each other's services or policies. Self-directed investment accounts are the sole responsibility of the account owner. Carefully weigh the advantages and disadvantages of investing your HSA funds before investing. HSA Bank and other business entities receive compensation for providing various services to the funds, including distribution (12b-1) and service fees. Your ability to replace losses in the investment account may be limited by the annual contribution limits of your HSA. HSA Bank does not offer investment advice.

Performance data and ratings represent past performance and are not a guarantee of future results. Investment returns and principal value will fluctuate and investors' shares, when sold, may be worth more or less than their original cost. For a detailed list of the HSA Bank fees related to your investment account, please refer to your HSA Bank Fee and Interest Rate Schedule or your Explanation of HSA Bank Fee Changes document.
